

Exhibition Details

The 2018 Adirondack Plein Air Festival, celebrating it's 10th anniversary, is a wonderful opportunity for artists to experience the rugged beauty of New York State's Adirondack Mountains, inspiration for many 19th century Hudson River School painters. 50 artists will be selected for participation. Sponsored by Saranac Lake ArtWorks, the event will take place Aug 13-18, with headquarters at the Adirondack Artists Guild Gallery in the charming, historic village of Saranac Lake. There are 5 days of outdoor painting, a Nocturne Contest, a "Paint the Town" Silent Auction, a Special Preview Party, a Quick Draw Competition, and a huge Show & Sale. At this time the Awards Juror has not yet been announced, but they usually offer a pre-event plein air workshop - more information will be available later.
